

Key clash

James Haskell v Schalk Burger

England have brought James Haskell into their back row to do to South Africa what Schalk Burger usually does to opponents of the Springboks. This clash of flankers pits the up-and-coming London Wasps player against the ferocious Burger, who is closing fast on his 50th cap. Burger, at 25, is only two years older and physically there is nothing between them. The void is experience and Haskell has said that he has modelled parts of his game on Burger, who is strong at the breakdown, a damaging ball-carrier and all-embracing at the tackle. It is a wonderful chance for Haskell to make up for a slow start to the season. More abrasive than Tom Croft, the man he replaces, he must make an impact close to rucks and mauls
