

The gold rush

Beijing 2008

Germany's seventh consecutive team dressage success puts them in the top three of the medals table for the first time in Beijing. China's five golds on day six puts them well clear at the top

Medals table: leading nations

	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Total
China	22	8	5	35
United States	10	9	15	34
Germany	7	2	3	12
South Korea	6	7	3	16
Italy	6	4	3	13
Australia	5	4	7	16
Japan	5	3	3	11
Russia	3	8	3	14
France	2	7	6	15
Great Britain	2	2	3	7

Gymnastics

	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Total
China	3	0	0	3
Japan	0	2	0	2
United States	0	1	1	2

Wrestling

	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Total
Russia	3	1	0	4
France	1	0	1	2
Cuba	1	0	0	1

Games in numbers

2

British boxers knocked out of the tournament yesterday - Tony Jefferies made it to the last eight

5

European countries in the top ten of the medals table led by Italy in fourth position

36

Competitors with more than one medal from these Games - 22 of them are swimmers

80

Text messages received by Michael Phelps after collecting his 11th gold medal

GB target

The Great Britain team have been set a target of 35 medals by UK Sport and a finishing position of eighth in the overall table in Beijing. No medals for Team GB on day six so they will be looking to get things moving again over the weekend

Medal target: 35

Total so far: 7

Gold

Silver

Bronze

Words: Calvin Shulman