

This hand-drawn map of Al-Atatra, northern Gaza, was supplied by the Israel Defence Forces, which said it had been found on the body of a Hamas fighter. The annotations were supplied by a senior officer in the IDF

IED Improvised explosive device
The area has been broken down into 3 fighting zones – red, blue and green

An index (in Arabic) identifying which marks and colours illustrate the different types of explosives and positions