

Keeping watch

Security forces

40,000 security troops will be overseen by the US security services

25,000 will be law-enforcement officers

10,000 will be National Guards

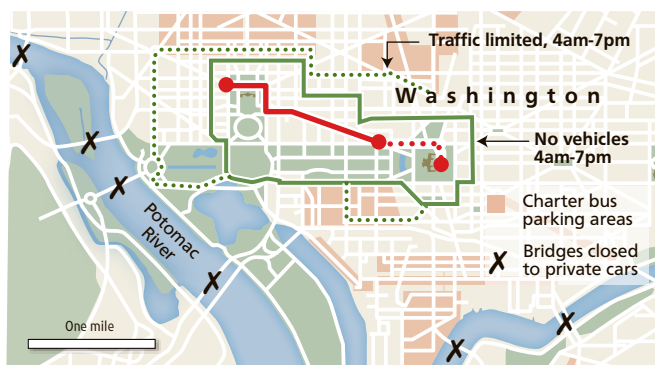

5,000 will be active-duty soldiers

155 teams of plainclothes officials will monitor underground trains

99 federal, state and local agencies will be working with the city police

12 -hour shifts will be worked by police officers

Traffic exclusion zones

Air exclusion zones

$75m
cost of security operation

- First aid post
- Public entry point: opens at 7am and closes when the area is full
- Metro station
- Metro station closed during parade
- Presidential procession
- Presidential parade

