

Movers and shakers

Most important

Least important

Nation of Islam

- Provided the bodyguards for Jackson during his 2005 child molestation trial and provided many of his staff, according to the family nanny. Jackson is said to have converted to Islam last year. Lurking background importance

Jesse Jackson

- Politician, civil rights activist and longstanding friend of the Jackson family – has been vocal on the TV news stations on their behalf

Rev Al Sharpton

- Baptist minister and civil rights leader close to the Jackson clan. May play a role in the funeral plans.

Dr Conrad Murray

- Personal physician and cardiologist who was there when Jackson died. Holds key to final hours. Had treated Jackson for up to three years and moved in two weeks ago ahead of move with him to London for concerts

Dr Tohme Tohme

- Jackson's business manager for the past 18 months. Described on his company website as "ambassador-at-large" for Senegal. He is reportedly a former orthopaedic surgeon. Has denied being at the house when Jackson collapsed but arrived soon after

The Jackson family

- The clan kept mostly at arm's length by Jackson recently is now running the show again, desperate to preserve his memory. Brother Jermaine is the designated family spokesman. Brother Randy will take over matters regarding his brother's estate. But father Joe, above, is in charge.

Frank Dileo

- Manager. Music business heavyweight and film actor based in Nashville, was Jackson's successful manager in the late 1980s until he was sacked. Jackson family friend, brought back in the last six months by AEG to help oversee Jackson's return to performing onstage. Was at the hospital and broke the news to Jackson's children of their father's death

Debbie Rowe

- Mother of Jackson's two oldest children. Some reports say that she will battle for custody, some that she will concede to Jackson family wish for Michael's mother Katherine to bring them up

Brian Oxman

- Former Jackson family lawyer dismissed in 2005 but who turned up at the hospital to denounce drug "enablers" in Jackson's entourage

Grace Rwaramba

- Nanny who looked after Jackson's children for 12 years. She was sacked six months ago and has flown back to LA from London to try to see the children