

One more defeat and Ramos is bottom of the pile

A home defeat by Bolton Wanderers tomorrow would turn Juande Ramos into Tottenham Hotspur's worst manager of the past 50 years in terms of points per league games. Bill Nicholson, who took charge half a century ago this month and achieved the club's most recent league title in 1961, has the best record while Ossie Ardiles will lose his unwanted position at the bottom of this table if Bolton win at White Hart Lane

	Pts per league game	(Pts from games)
Bill Nicholson	1.65	(1,102 from 666)
David Pleat	1.53	(132 from 86*)
Peter Shreeves	1.54	(194 from 126)
Martin Jol	1.51	(171 from 113)
Keith Burkinshaw	1.45	(488 from 336)
Terry Venables	1.42	(194 from 137)
Doug Livermore	1.40	(59 from 42)
Gerry Francis	1.39	(165 from 119)
Christian Gross	1.308	(34 from 26)
George Graham	1.306	(128 from 98)
Terry Neill	1.29	(101 from 78)
Glenn Hoddle	1.27	(113 from 89)
Jacques Santini	1.18	(13 from 11)
Juande Ramos	1.17	(41 from 35)
Ossie Ardiles	1.15	(62 from 54)

*91 from 54 in first spell; 41 from 32 in second
 **142 from 84 in first spell; 52 from 42 in second

Where have all the players gone?

The turmoil and squad turnover at Tottenham Hotspur in recent times is underlined by the fact that 27 of their former players are with rival Barclays Premier League clubs

- Aston Villa
Luke Young, Wayne Routledge
- Blackburn Rovers
Paul Robinson
- Bolton
Ian Walker
- Fulham
Paul Konchesky*, Bobby Zamora, Danny Murphy, Simon Davies
- Hull City
Nick Barmby, Dean Marney, Anthony Gardner
- Liverpool
Robbie Keane
- Manchester United
Dimitar Berbatov, Michael Carrick
- Middlesbrough
Mido
- Portsmouth
Younès Kaboul, Jermain Defoe, Noé Pamarot, Sol Campbell, Sean Davis
- Sunderland
Teemu Tainio, Steed Malbranque, Andy Reid, Pascal Chimbonda
- West Ham United
Matthew Etherington
- Wigan Athletic
Erik Edman, Michael Brown

*loan