

Blues brothers not performing

Luiz Felipe Scolari has complained that some of his squad have not been playing to their usual high standards. Some, according to the Chelsea manager, have been putting in performances that he regards as being "35 per cent" of their potential. Assessing their displays since the 1-0 defeat by Liverpool at the end of October, this is how The Times rates the performances of Scolari's frontline players

Deco
30%

