

Gunners on target

While Liverpool bombarded the Arsenal goal last night - 14 shots on target and nine wide of the goal - the visiting side were more clinical. Arsenal hit the target four times - all by Andrey Arshavin - and scored all four. Liverpool have scored four or more goals in six of their past eight games. However, English football's new entertainers will rue the goals that they have conceded, most notably in the 4-4 draw with Chelsea in the Champions League eight days ago and last night's quadruple
