Battle of the little big men at scrum half

Sean Long (St Helens)

Serial Old Trafford winner and fulcrum around whom the team tick. No slowing down at 32 by the man with an uncanny knack of pulling victories from the bag, whose kicking from hand and off the tee – he needs five goals for a career 1,000 – can steer Saints to a fifth Grand Final triumph

Rob Burrow (Leeds)

A human buzzsaw, with lightning pace and reactions, whom St Helens singularly failed to subdue in last year's final. Let loose, he runs opponents ragged but is also a shrewd organiser and distributor. Given a yard, he will take a mile. Potential match winner for the Rhinos
