

Young times

Get your skates on

How's this for cold comfort? More Christmas ice rinks are opening in Britain this year than ever before. Chloe Lambert looks at some of the best

Eden Project, Cornwall
Hone your skills in an enchanting setting beneath snow-laden fir trees, with Eden's biomes forming a spectacular backdrop. Skating lessons also available, from October 25 to February 22. Closed Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.
www.edenproject.com

Cambridge On Ice
Glide around in the heart of historic Cambridge and warm up with hot chocolate and pastries in the cosy log cabin. Take things slowly at the Parent and Toddler or Silver Skater sessions. From November 15 to January 4. Closed Christmas Day.
www.cambridgeonice.co.uk

Natural History Museum, London
Enjoy the museum's 900m sq ice rink and junior rink, complete with connecting ice bridge. It's spectacular after dark when the fairy lights are twinkling. Open from November 6 to January 18. Closed Christmas Day.
www.nhmskating.com

Centre for Life, Newcastle upon Tyne
Blow your mind and engage your brain at this award-winning science museum, and then whirl around on its Christmas ice rink, which is open from November 8 to February 22. Closed Christmas Day.
www.life.org.uk

COMPETITION

We have a family ticket to give away for each of these ice rinks, thanks to Great Little Adventures. To enter, answer this question:

Torvill and Dean are Britain's most famous ice-skating partnership. But what are their first names?

E-mail your answer to youngtimes@thetimes.co.uk by midday on Friday, November 28. Please state which of the four ice rinks (listed below) you would like to visit. Include your name, age and address. The winners will be chosen at random from the correct entries.

Find out about more great days out at www.greatlittleadventures.co.uk

daily dingbat

Which word or phrase is this? Say what you see.

Yesterday's answer Good afternoon

puzzle of the day

square deal

Write the names of the pictures into the rows of the grid, and an exotic flower will be revealed.

1
2
3
4
5

Yesterday's answer Trampoline

FIRST WORLD WAR 90TH ANNIVERSARY

November 2008 marks the ninetieth anniversary of the Armistice
Visit www.iwm.org.uk/90 and discover how the Imperial War Museum's five branches are remembering 'the war to end all wars'

IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM LONDON • CHURCHILL MUSEUM AND CABINET WAR ROOMS
HMS BELFAST • IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM DUXFORD • IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM NORTH

Media Partner

THE TIMES